

Midsummer Celebration!

The Long Barn at Roselidden
Saturday 21st June 2014, 5 pm to 9 pm

After two months in construction, a month drying out, and a few practise runs, the wood fired pizza oven is now in action, and producing delicious, if somewhat irregularly shaped pizzas.

So, to celebrate the year's longest day, we will be having a less formal pop-up than usual, more of a drop-in garden party for all the family!
We will be firing up the oven from 5pm to 9pm, and offering

Dough Balls and Garlic Bread

Wood Fired Pizzas

A Superb Selection of Summer Salads

Home Made Ice Cream and Sorbets

Tea and Coffee

On top of the tomato, mozzarella and oregano base, you will be able to hand craft your dream pizza, with mushrooms, peppers, spinach, prosciutto, pine nuts, pesto, olives etc, but be warned if you want ham and pineapple, you will have to bring your own!
There will be gluten free pizza bases for those of a sensitive disposition.
If the weather is kind, we will eat al fresco, and watch the sun go down, if it is wet or windy, we will retreat into the Long Barn.

Bring your own beer, wine and spirits to make the evening go with a swing!

£17 per head, £10 children
